5.4.1 There is a registered Alumni Association that contributes significantly to the development of the institution through financial and/or other support services.

Srinivasa Institute of Management Studies has Alumni Association which is an enrolled body that is extremely dynamic in offering help in each part of the development and extension cycle of the institution. The Alumni Association gives a point of interaction to laying out a connection between the establishment's graduated class, staff, and students. The significant goal of the Alumni Association is to cultivate, keep up with and improve the connection between the Establishment and Graduated class. The criticism of the Graduated class is significant in molding the cocurricular and situation exercises of the institute in this way helping in the general improvement of the institute. At present the Institutional Alumni Association is drawing in the Graduated class in the direct of visitor addresses, specialized talks and collaboration with youngsters. This is accomplished through the Graduated class cell and the Preparation and the Position cell. The connections give a reasonable picture to the lesser students of what is generally anticipated out of them in different Enterprises. The Graduated class further aid the youngsters in anticipation of cutthroat tests and advanced education in Indian and Unfamiliar environments in theglobal competitive world. A larger part of the Graduated class is in touch with the Students, Staff, Organization through the web-based Proficient stage strikingly LinkedIn. Their advices/ideas/conclusions are valuable in fostering the organization. A portion of the exercises completed by the Graduated class include:

- Intuitive meetings with the students of present cluster and to give advising.
- Help in bringing enterprises and organizations for grounds drives
- Giving arrangements/work open doors to the students.
- As couple of individuals from the graduated class are business people, they assume a significant part in rousing the students to become business people.

The College plans to conduct one Alumni meet consistently to guarantee the more extensive cooperation of Alumni in various exercises of the institute to serve students. The Alumni social affairs are taken spots where the Foundation gets direct data and backing from the Graduated class. These are to be led routinely however the institute has led them just sporadically. Not with standing, noticing that a few Alumni in little gatherings during their days off, visit the institute and give helpful suggestions is blissful.
